If I Were Rich

*Sharing The Joy
Poetry By Cheryl Murph*

I believe I could eat steak for every meal but I must say they are times when I must settle for fried spam and pinto beans. My husband is no prince nor did he ride up on a beautiful white horse like every little girl hopes for in her dreams. My children are not perfect but I love them just as they are. We have never had much money but we have never been poor, by far. Grand-kids, we have been beyond blessed with a few. Yet in my past I have ask myself if I were a millionaire what would I do? As long as the world turns money will continue to buy power. And power will buy friends. Friends will love you forever or at least until your money trail ends. If I had the money to eat a steak every night, before too long it wouldn't taste near as good. I would then get tired of Lobster and even Salmon grilled on a plank of cedar wood. Had my husband been a prince and rode up on a white horse and carried me away, I would live in his castle and miss all the simple things in life I have learned on our little farm day after day. Had my children became rich and famous, it would have carried them to a big city and away from this little town. Instead of my phone ringing they would call their therapist when they were feeling lonely or down. Without our kids around then our grand-kids we also would never see. So now when I think about how my life could have been so much different I realize..... I am exactly where God intended on me to be.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10

Easter is a festival and holiday celebrating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the grave. Jesus is the Son of God and gave his life on the cross for our sins. He offers everyone a gift of eternal life and forgiveness of our sins by his death on the cross and his resurrection. Join Christians of all traditions for an Easter Hayride at the Bar H. Arena. You will relive the journey of Jesus to the cross and his resurrection as a depiction of his final days are presented.
