BILLY GRAHAM
1918 - 2018

Billy Graham

Sharing The Joy
Poetry By Cheryl Murph

I have found myself thinking more so than ever about the Rev. Billy Graham since I heard the news he had passed away. On T.V. we saw all the lives he touched and the many souls he lead to God. His children, the stories they each told was so special on that unforgettable day. A celebration of his life was unlike any I had ever seen, much less known. And for as his funeral, he preached his own. People from all over the world came to show their respect for Rev. Graham. There were no sad tears for those folks for they all knew he was with the lamb. He was now with our God almighty and his loving wife as well. He gave all who listened to him the truth about God's beautiful City and Satan's never ending hell. For those that had some ugly things to write and say, Rev. Graham would forgive you all and he would ask, do you know Jesus today? A fleshly man he was, yet no one could ever fill his shoes no matter how hard they may try. These few words I dedicate to the late Rev. Billy Graham. We shall see you again someday so there is no need to say goodbye.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10

Enjoy secure eating comfort again.

In one short procedure, you can have a stable denture with no surgical sutures nor the typical and a retaining fixture that is incorporated into the base of your denture.
