Backyard Maintenance Tips For Summer

(NAPSI)—Summer is here and it's time for backyard barbecues! Before your guests arrive, check these four backyard maintenance tasks off your to-do list to ensure your yard is looking good.

Clean Your Barbecue

To prevent food from sticking to your barbecue grills, rub cooking oil on the grates before you start. After you're done barbecuing, use warm, soapy water to clean the grates with a wire brush.

Give Outdoor Furniture a Pick-Me-Up

With all furniture, check for wear and tear that may have occurred during winter. Clean plastic furniture and chair or couch cushions simply with a cloth or soft scrub brush dipped in a mix of water and dish detergent. Some outdoor cushions can be thrown in the washer so check the tags.

Check Power Equipment

Since power equipment most likely hasn't been used in months, turn it on to make sure it's working properly. Some equipment may need to be lubricated to run smoothly again. Easily lubricate the moving parts of a lawn mower with WD-40 EZ-REACH™. It has an 8-inch, flexible straw that bends and keeps its shape to get WD-40® Multi-Use Product into

Sharing The Joy
Poetry By Cheryl Murph

As a child I was raised with morals and discipline that I did not always understand. Me and my sister was not allowed to wear certain clothes nor were we allowed to wear red lipstick nor red polish on our toes and hands. My daddy was a strict dad.

However, once I had children of my own a lot of my daddy's reasons to me became perfectly clear.

If we did not mind then we knew daddy was a man to be feared. My daddy has gone on now yet my upbringing still remains a big part of who I am.

To my elders it still is yes sir, no sir, yes ma'am and no ma'am. But I have been spending more time now with my only Father. My Heavenly Father that is has become my greatest concern. He loves me and cares for me more than anyone on this earth. He too is a strict Father and his way of teaching I am starting to learn. My Father ask that I love Him more than anything else in my life.

Yet he wants me to be a loving mother, a thoughtful friend, he wants me to pray for my enemies and be a respectful wife.

He also ask over all that I tell others about him and be a witness to everyone I see.

Weather it be in a poem, in a song, even the clothes I wear may all i do represent Christ in me.

I am just a sinner, yet I am a reborn sinner and my Father is slowly removing my layers of pride, selfishness and some of my other fleshly ways.

The less the world accepts me tells me that I am growing stronger and stronger through him because he reveals it to me in his word every single day.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10
