Technical Schools Create Pathway To In-Demand Careers

(NAPSI)—When it comes to higher education, one size does not fit all. Every student is wired differently. For some, a four-year college degree may be ideal, but for others, a technical training program may be the best option.

There is growing recognition that hands-on professionals are increasingly valuable and in demand. Companies of all stripes—including WD-40 Company and 11 other transportation industry partners—are stepping up to the plate to support groups like TechForce Foundation, whose mission is to champion students through their education and into careers as professional technicians.

"Our goal is to support naturally skilled tactile learners with tools and resources—like after-school programs, clubs and activities, mentors and experiences—that allow them to engage with the quickly growing and highly technical world of vehicle technology," said Jennifer Maher, CEO and executive director of TechForce Foundation. "These tools and resources will also allow their parents and influencers to understand there are promising technical career opportunities that they may not have considered."

Technical schools offer numerous benefits:

A Path to Success: Technical and vocational schools match unique talents with the ways that some students learn and thrive. TechForce Foundation is a nonprofit organization that offers a learning style test to tell if a technical school is right for a particular student.

Access to Jobs: According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the automotive industry alone will need nearly 76,000 additional

The Same but Different

Sharing The Joy
Poetry By Cheryl Murph

When I became a teenager my mood swings seem to go instantly up and down. Junior High and High School had it's share even back then of bullies, peer pressure and gossip as it traveled like wildfire through town. I began to realize then the older I got the more life became complicated. I noticed I found myself going around people where I felt celebrated. Even if they were unhealthy for me it still felt better than the feeling of being tolerated! Deep inside I felt as if my horse and dog were the only two living things I actually enjoyed being around. The sinners were just bad, but they were genuine and the saints well they thought they were better so they judged everyone in town. The teenage snobs both female and male fed off of popularity and praise. The poor got ridiculed and the wild got high on Pink Floyd and Purple Haze. Today teenagers face the same things we did yet some things are different. When it comes to respect and responsibility for themselves as well as others. The only law that matters is Gods law and he has rules for every dad, every mother, every sister and every brother. His word tells us his perfect way on how we should strive to live, to work, to teach and to Love one another. The world wants to tell them how to dress, what is best to eat, how their parents should discipline them and religion has become so watered down that a Christian is less about Gods law but more of a family tradition. Everything is mellow, life is sweet, hard work is inhumane so let all us parents get them a movie or video game and just please no friction. There is change in every generation and all though we are the same yet different one thing for certain I know. The ways of our world, in Family, in Schools and even in the Political field are going exactly like God is allowing it to go.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10

Apples And Potatoes Are A Great Combination

(NAPSI)—Whether it's Labor Day, Election Day, Veterans Day, a day your family went apple picking, tailgating time or just a good day for a great salad, this colorful concoction of potatoes and Envy™ apples can make for a delightful side dish.

Red, White & Blue Potato Salad by Envy™

Makes 6 servings

1 lb small red potatoes, halved
1 lb small purple potatoes, halved

For the vinaigrette:

¼ cup champagne vinegar
¼ cup extra virgin olive oil
2 T finely chopped shallot
1 tsp kosher salt
20 turns of fresh cracked pepper

Finish with:

2 Envy™ apples, large diced
2 T finely chopped parsley

Boil potatoes separately in salted water (should taste like the ocean) until tender. Drain. Whisk together all ingredients for the vinaigrette and then toss with the warm potatoes. Fold in diced apples and parsley and serve.

Because this dish is made with Envy™ apples, which offer extraordinary crunch and texture, a refreshingly sweet taste and beautiful colors, it won't turn brown in the bowl, making it even more appealing to the eye as well as to the palate. They stay crisp and fresh looking for hours, making them excellent for recipes, picnics, school lunches and smart snacking.

ments. Starting with a dry space is important.

An Answer

As a result, builders and contractors often favor an inorganic stone wool insulation that's resistant to mold and mildew growth, such as Rockwool Comfortboard and Comfortbatt products. Not only will they help protect indoor air quality, they're easy to install and won't slump in the wall cavity. This serves to ensure the comfort of your newfound living space, so you can count on long-term thermal performance for years to come.

Remodeling a basement can be very worthwhile, especially when you consider that moving to a larger home can add significant bulk to your mortgage. To get the most from the project, be sure to practice due diligence, obtain the right permits, and educate yourself on building codes. If you don't have the know-how, it's worth the peace of mind to hire a qualified professional.
