Holidays

Sharing The Joy

Poetry By Cheryl Murph

Holidays are here once again.

We just enjoyed our Thanksgiving day.

As I am blessed with family I also miss those I love that recently passed away.

I know they are much better off with you Lord
than they were when they were here.

Yet I know I will always have grief in my heart
for those I loved so dear.

I also thank you Lord for all the food we had to eat.

Our table runneth over with turkey, dressing, ham and homemade brownies is always hard to beat.

As I looked around I remembered our sojourners and the less fortunate ones who never made it home.

I said a prayer for those under bridges, in the hospitals and those who have no family and are all alone.

I can't imagine what kind of life that must be.

I have to admit when I think of all these people I realize dear Lord how much you have blessed me.

Your birthday is just around the corner, maybe you will let me know of something you would like for me to do.

The whole meaning of Christmas has become so commercial that very seldom does the subject come up about you.

But I will stand with those who remember the true meaning of our savior Jesus Christ on Christmas Day.

May I give more than ever, love deeper and have nothing but kindness and encouraging words to say.

May I remember Holidays are not about presents, money or oneself but giving and thinking of others without expecting anything in return.

So this holiday season I will celebrate you more Lord and may the gift of love and giving be of all, my greatest concern.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10
