Elsie

Sharing The Joy
Poetry By Cheryl Murph

Elsie grew up in a world that for most never exist.
Being the only child there was never a dance recital or a beauty Padgett her parents missed.
She was not only the apple of her dad's eye but her mother's too.
She went to the best Christian schools and was very popular in everything she decided to do.
The world revolved entirely around little Elsie Jean Scott.
No matter what it was she ask for her parents made sure that was what she got.
As Elsie grew older she was convinced when it came to people, she was much better than the rest.
She was sure she deserved nothing less than the best.
It was as if Elsie seen herself as a Princess made of fine bone china very rare and very irreplaceable too.
She was never taught to be unselfish, show respect and be kind because her way, was all she knew.
When she became twenty she told her dad she wanted to be a fashion designer so he hired Calvin Klein to teach her the things she needed to know.
She got bored pretty fast so she then tried modeling.
Then she preformed a couple of acts in a broad way show.
Then she met Denny!
He was tall dark and handsome for sure.
If anyone had a problem, an ache or anything at all wrong he definitely had a cure!
For most young ladies he probably would.
But when it came to Elsie no one could.
The truth is Elsie's mom and dad gave into every one of Elsie's beck and call.
She knew how to do nothing on her own at all.
No man nor no one could ever do this for her.
She needed much more than real pearls, diamond rings and mink furs.
After six broken marriages, eight DUL's and four warrants for soliciting on Wall Street, at the young age of 46 Elsie died.
An over dose of heroine was the last thing she tried.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10

We can give you the smile you deserve in one easy visit! Using a non-surgical mini dental implant technique (F.I.R.S.T.), it is now possible to permanently replace anything from a single tooth to a full mouth restoration.
