Despair

Sharing The Joy

Poetry By Cheryl Murph

Father forgive me in those times of despair.
It is during these times I have so often jumped in front of you as though you aren't there.
Especially when it comes to my loved ones and they face hardships of their own.
I still want to make things better for the children
even if they are grown.
I know in this flesh I often focus more on me when I should rely completely on you.
You handled yesterday, today and you will handle
tomorrow too.
I have to remind myself it is through our times of despair that we grow closer to you than ever before.
As I learn to get out of your way I find my faith growing more and more.
So I do ask Father for forgiveness again in those times of despair.
May I remember what you told me in your word,
you will never put on me more than I can bare.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10
