Ms. Rose

*Sharing The Joy
Poetry By Cheryl Murph*

Ms. Rose was a well educated middle aged lady that so many thought a lot of.

She talked about God and his unconditional love.

She was also a mentor to kids in many ways.

Using her love for animals she taught children how to be respectful and what "not" to say.

Attractive yet rugged Ms. Rose stood tall.

So not in a million years did she nor anyone else expect this lady of God to take such a fall.

No matter how long one has been a christian we all are made of flesh and bone.

When God allows Satan an opportunity to test us then the battle is on!

Ms. Rose's faith wavered and her strength was gone. Her soul-mate she had finally found!

Satan whispered to her...your thirty year marriage is stale and you no longer need your husband around.

But when you are a child of God you will never find peace when playing with sin.

Ms. Rose knew she was fighting a battle she would never win.

Her emotions became unsettling and she was consumed by guilt and shame.

As she thought of this test she had failed she was reminded of three nails and her Savior's pain.

She knew he would never forsake her as she fell to her knees and cried out his name.

No matter how Godly any of us may think we are we all sin everyday.

God doesn't have a set of scales for sin, because he see's one the same as the other in every way.

So whenever us Christians want to judge someone like Ms. Rose, keep in mind, there is not one sin you may think is so tiny that God doesn't know.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10
