The Resurrection

Sharing The Joy
Poetry By Cheryl Murph

Many years ago a man name Jesus walked the streets of Jerusalem telling his story to all. As he covered the desert and mountainside his story was the real truth without any man made laws. He was the son of our living God. The words he spoke in parables became popular through out all the middle east during this time. Some worshiped him yet many called him a traitor. People demanded more proof than him turning the water into wine. Out of those whom had little to no faith, it was his own people that despised him most, "The Jews" They were convinced Jesus was making a mockery of the only God they had ever knew. Therefore he would be despised, rejected, beat on, spat on, and crucified. He hung on that old rugged cross in pure agony as his mother watched, she begged, pleaded and cried. But that was only the beginning you see, God had a plan for he knew Jesus had to die. Yet he would rise again on day three. The resurrection prove's to us he is Gods only begotten son. Even to this day at "The Cross", is where all our battle's are won. Jesus is now with his father sitting at his right hand. It's not about the rabbit on "Easter" but the great resurrection that took place after the ultimate sacrifice was made for man.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10 To read more of Cheryl's work find her on Facebook. If you would like to have Cheryl write a special poem for your loved one, contact her at lulymoon1961@yahoo.com
