Ms. Rose

Sharing The Joy

Poetry By Cheryl Murph

Ms. Rose an educated middle aged lady that so many people seem to think a lot of. She always talked about God and his unconditional love. She was also a mentor to kids in many ways. Using her love for animals she taught them how to be respectful, responsible yet have fun and play. Attractive yet rugged Ms.Rose was known for being an outspoken woman that always stood tall. Not in a million years did she nor anyone else expect this lady of God would take such a fall. No matter how long one has been a christian we all are made of flesh and bone. When God allows Satan the opportunity to test us and the flesh grows weak, then the battle is on. Ms. Rose in her early fifties could not believe that finally her soul-mate she had found! Satan whispered ...your thirty something year old marriage is stale and who needs a husband around! Ms. Rose became so blinded by Satan's lies she had forgotten God's children never have peace when playing in sin. It was too late, the fight was over and Satan takes the win. Her heart became numb and she was totally consumed by her guilt and shame. But because of Gods Sovereign Grace he had already forgave her as she fell to her knees and cried out his name. Ms. Rose will live with her regrets for the rest of her life. Her once loving husband moved on and her so called soul-mate is back with his wife. As for her Godly friends, they are no where to be found. Yet their gossip spreads like poison ivy all through town. But always remember when you decide to judge someone like or unlike Ms. Rose, keep in mind every single sin you commit you may hide from the world but God always knows. Ms. Rose is still standing but not quiet as tall. But in time she will use her experience as a testimony to others when they fall. Job 34:21-30

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10 To read more of Cheryl's work find her on Facebook. If you would like to have Cheryl write a special poem for your loved one, contact her at lulumoon1961@yahoo.com
