Thanksgiving

*Sharing The Joy
Poetry By Cheryl Murph*

As families come together during this Thanksgiving time, I know I am so blessed to have mine.

As we grow we learn the value of our own families more so than ever before.

We see the blessings bestowed upon us as one by one they walk through our door.

We see the once tiny babies that now can walk, we see how much all the teenagers have grown.

And we see our own children that have become parents of their own.

Our great Grandparents show us how fragile life is and how quickly time passes as the pages of their lives began to fold.

And us Grandparents, brothers and sisters, well we realize we too are growing old.

For the loss of our dear loved ones God has already called home, we find is still just as faithful and gives us his Grace to continue on.

The turkey, ham and all the fixins are a blessing but may we always be thankful for everything and remember to give.

Not just once a year at Thanksgiving but everyday we live.

Happy Thanksgiving

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10
