The Event That Changed Everything

Luke 1:26-38, 2:1-20.

The Birth of Jesus Foretold

Luke 1:26-38

<sup>26</sup> In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, <sup>27</sup> to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary. <sup>28</sup> The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you."

<sup>29</sup> Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. <sup>30</sup> But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary; you have found favor with God. <sup>31</sup> You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus. <sup>32</sup> He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, <sup>33</sup> and he will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom will never end."

<sup>34</sup> "How will this be," Mary asked the angel, "since I am a virgin?"

<sup>35</sup> The angel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the holy one to be born will be called the Son of God. <sup>36</sup> Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child in her old age, and she who was said to be unable to conceive is in her sixth month. <sup>37</sup> For no word from God will ever fail."

<sup>38</sup> "I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May your word to me be fulfilled." Then the angel left her.

The Birth of Jesus

Luke 2:1-20

<sup>1</sup> In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. <sup>2</sup> (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) <sup>3</sup> And everyone went to their own town to register.

<sup>4</sup> So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. <sup>5</sup> He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. <sup>6</sup> While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, <sup>7</sup> and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

<sup>8</sup> And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. <sup>9</sup> An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. <sup>10</sup> But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. <sup>11</sup> Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. <sup>12</sup> This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

<sup>13</sup> Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

<sup>14</sup> "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

<sup>15</sup> When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

<sup>16</sup> So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup> When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, <sup>18</sup> and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. <sup>19</sup> But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. <sup>20</sup> The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

This year for Christmas

Sharing The Joy

Poetry By Cheryl Murph

If I were ask what I wanted this year from Santa Claus, that is if he actually did exist,
I wouldn't want things I have never had but the things I truly miss.
Playing in the streets at night with my brother, my sister and all our cousins on Rainbow Drive.
Of course years ago that was the greatest street in the world.
Something about the night air made us kids hearts thrive.
I would ask for those same chapped lips as a child and the numbness in my fingers and toes because it was so cold.
I would ask to see my pop again.
So I could smell those giant butter beans he always had on the stove.
I would ask to see granny's Christmas tree that stood only four feet tall.
Covered in those big bulbs that lit up the whole room.
It never mattered that all her presents were small.
I would ask Santa for warmth that was felt as my aunts and uncles sat around the table playing cards and cracking jokes.
Do folks now days to have the respect they had back then?
If anyone had a alcoholic beverage, they at least put it in a poke.
I would ask to go back to the place where one could help a stranger without being afraid.
A place before there were "apps" for this and for that.
And most of the Christmas decorations were home made.
Going back to Grannys would be a wonderful compared to life these days.
None of us were perfect but we put aside our differences, accepted one another and bowed our heads to pray.
If I could ask Santa for anything I realize I can't go back to Grannys but I can welcome all my loved ones into my home.
And if we really do know the reason for the season then we too can come together to celebrate Jesus and all get along.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10
