Launched in 1952, The Camrose Booster quickly became, and continues to be, preferred reading by almost everyone in the entire trading area.

Since 1986, The Country Booster has been delivered to all farm families and rural readers in East Central Alberta.

Our Super Booster is published on some of the most significant business weeks for our community during the calendar year.

No other form of print is more important to readers when they're in need of consumer information, news or assistance with buying decisions.
